Go Global adopted the .travel domain name because “the idea appealed to us as very appropriate in terms of signifying and clearly placing the company in the ‘domain’ of travel business.” Says Natalie Dekalo. “It was also very important that the .travel domains were reserved for authenticated companies within the industry only, which helps prevent misuse and boosts customer trust. The search.travel database is a great added value in terms of sales and marketing support.”

In terms of Google search, GoGlobal.travel comes up as #3 out of 5.5 million results!
